TELEPHONE CASE TO BE REVIEWED

Objections Made by Farmers to a Rate of 25c a Month May Result in Rehearing Soon.

REBATE ORDER CONSIDERED

Commission Announces It Will Insist Upon Compliance With Its Recent Instructions.

That the case of the Seymour Mutual Telephone Company seeking permission to establish higher rates may be reopened by the Indiana public service commission, was the unofficial word that has come to this city. It is understood that the commission is considering a review of the local case because of the objections made by the farmers in Jackson county to a charge of 25 cents a month for connecting their phones with the Seymour exchange. The farmers declare that they believe the increase from 50 cents a year to 25 cents a month is too great. Their objections were presented before the commission at a recent hearing in this city.

At the hearing, L. C. Griffiths, president of the Seymour Company, stated in testimony that if the revenue which had been counted on from the farmers' lines was reduced the difference would have to be made up in some other way. This statement was taken to mean that the Seymour Company would attempt to secure higher rates in this city.

A dispatch to The Republican this afternoon relative to the local telephone case, quoted the commission as saying that the rebate of rates ordered by the commission would have to be made by the Seymour company, but nothing was contained in the message about a rehearing or review of the case. However, from sources which apparently are in touch with the situation, it is learned that the commission is expecting to hold a rehearing, probably about March 13.

The company, the commission holds, has only partly complied with the rebate order. The commission in its last order fixing rates here ordered the company to refund to subscribers the difference between the rates made by the company under the so-called Burleson order effective July 1 and those in effect before that date. The commission expected the company to refund the difference for six months and then to institute the rates on December 1 which were fixed by the commission. The company interpreted the order to mean that the commission intended that the difference between the Burleson rates and the commission's rates should be refunded, and checks were sent out accordingly.

"The commission is going to insist that the refund be made in accordance with its original order," the commission stated in an interview today.

It is expected that definite word relative to the proposed review of the case will be received here soon.

PETITION OF WATER COMPANY GRANTED

Local Utility Permitted by Public Service Commission to Issue $40,000 Preferred Stock.

IMPROVEMENTS ARE PLANNED

New Sedimentation Basin With Two Million Gallons Capacity to be Constructed at Once.

Following a formal hearing Thursday, the Indiana public service commission gave its consent to a petition filed by the Seymour Water Company to issue $40,000 preferred stock to pay off indebtedness and to make extensive improvements for the betterment of the service. No objection was filed with the commission to the plan of the company to issue preferred stock for the amount asked, but the city insisted upon the completion of certain proposed improvements this year.

The representatives of the Water Company stated that the utility had an indebtedness of $15,000 and that this would be paid if the petition was granted. One of the important improvements contemplated by the petitioner is the construction of a reinforced concrete sedimentation basin at the pumping station at Rockford to take the place of the wood structure which has been in use for a number of years. The new basin will have a capacity of 1,000,000 gallons and will be built in accordance with the most modern plans. It is understood that the new sedimentation basin will eliminate the necessity for clarifying and purifying the water with chemicals. The sedimentation basin will cost in the neighborhood of $30,000, it is said.

The company recently constructed hydraulic power equipment at the pumping station and some changes are to be made in this to make it more efficient. This is one of the few hydraulic systems in use by water companies in this section of the state and has attracted much attention. The value of the system was demonstrated during the recent coal shortage. Many water plants were forced to close for want of fuel, but the local plant was able to conserve its coal supply by the use of the hydraulic system and uniform water pressure was given without interruption.

The stockholders of the company intend to make the local water plant one of the most modern in Indiana and expect to spend considerably more on the improvements than the amount that will be derived from the sale of preferred stock. The commission was informed that the improvement of the service was the principal object in asking for authority to issue the preferred stock.

New Personal Property Schedules Distributed by James Branaman, County Assessor.

WORK WILL BEGIN MONDAY

Assessors Instructed to List All Property at Full Value as Required by Tax Law.

The township assessors in Jackson county met at the court house this morning and received the necessary supplies for the listing of personal property in 1920. The supplies will be distributed to the deputy assessors in each township in ample time so that they may begin their work Monday, the date specified by the law. The task of listing personal property will be accompanied by new difficulties this year inasmuch as the new schedules will be used and the public is not familiar with them.

At a recent meeting of the township and deputy assessors at the court house, a representative of the state board of tax commissioners explained the new schedule and impressed upon the assessors that they are to list all personal property at its full value. This provision of the new law is to be followed more strictly than in the past as the state

CHARLES MAINS VICTIM OF ORGANIC HEART DISEASE

Dies at Home Near Retreat Following Sudden Attack—Coroner Holds Inquest.

George T. Manuel, county coroner, was called to Retreat Thursday afternoon to hold an inquest over the body of Charles Mains, who died very suddenly. He returned a verdict that death was caused by a sudden attack of organic heart trouble. The deceased was forty-six years old. For several years he made his home with his brother, James Mains. He was stricken suddenly Thursday morning about 7 o'clock and lingered until about 1:45 in the afternoon. An attempt was made to get a physician but death came before one arrived.

Mr. Mains had been in poor health for several years. He consulted specialists in regard to his heart and was informed that his disease was incurable and death might come at any time following an attack. The funeral will be held from the home Saturday. Burial will be in the Retreat cemetery.

Workers to Report at 7:30 O'clock Tonight on Results—"Five Hours" is Goal.

The intensive campaign to secure pledges of $5,000 in five hours," in support of the new activity program of the Chamber of Commerce was in full swing this afternoon. The hours for the campaign were officially designated from noon until 5 o'clock, and it is the confident belief of the soliciting committees that before that hour the full amount will be subscribed. All pledges are being taken for a specified amount annually for a period of three years. This plan apparently is popular with the public as it is generally realized that the extensive program which is proposed by the Chamber of Commerce could not be worked out in less than three years. The first year probably will be required for the new secretary, who will devote all of his time to the work, to become acquainted with local conditions and to map out the work which he will undertake.

COUNTY HAS CREDIT OF $813 ON ARMENIAN FUND

Subscriptions Paid Since July 1, 1919, Will Apply on Quota of $3,600.

J. H. More, chairman of the Armenian relief organization in Jackson county has received a letter from the state headquarters announcing that Jackson county already has a credit of $813.31 on its quota of $3,600. The credit comes from contributions by different organizations which were made since July 1, 1919.

Mr. More expects to present the Armenian relief before the lodges, women's clubs, churches and other organizations. The county has been asked to provide sufficient money to buy food for fifty-six Armenian children. The cost of providing food for these children is computed on the basis of $60 a year each. It is believed that the entire amount will be subscribed here. The campaign is being conducted among organizations rather than individuals and those becoming sponsor for a child may pay $5 a month instead of sending the total of $60 at one time.

Railroad Administration Preparing to Discontinue All Departments Next Monday.

Washington, February 28.—President Wilson is expected to act on the railroad control bill within a short time, it was believed today.

Union leaders who urged the President to veto the act and railroad executives are anxiously awaiting the decision from the White House.

The Railroad administration is rushing plans to turn the roads back to private control after 12:01 a. m. Monday. Preparations have been made to discontinue on Monday all departments of the railroad administration except the liquidation division.

Railroad Director Hines and Attorney General Palmer have advised the President to sign the bill and make it law, it was learned today from a source usually reliable.

SMYRNA AND ADRIANOPLE DISTRICTS GO TO GREECE

Council of Ambassadors Decides to Place Turkish Finances Under International Control.

By United Press
London, February 27.—The council of premiers has decided definitely to award the Smyrna and Adrianople districts of Turkey to Greece for economic exploitation, it was understood today.

The council also decided, it was understood, that Turkish finances will be placed under international control.

Bitter debate in the Turkish question featured yesterday's session in the house of commons. Premier Lloyd George, answering arguments put forward by Lord Robert Cecil, who declared the allies should seize this opportunity to expel the Turk from Europe, pointed out that pressure from India had been largely responsible for Great Britain's decision to allow the sublime ports to remain in Constantinople.

SPECIAL SESSION MAY BE NECESSARY

Goodrich May Issue Call Despite Opposition of Republican Central Committee.

STATE FINANCES ARE LOW

Secretary of Committee Denies That Various Meetings Yesterday Were Inharmonious.

By United Press
Indianapolis, Feb. 27.—Governor Goodrich today was faced with the question of calling a special session of the legislature following a unanimous vote of the Republican state committee against such action. Persons close to the Governor say a special session is inevitable and that he will call one in the face of opposition because the finances of the state institutions are at low ebb.

Following a meeting of the state committee yesterday, the Governor conferred with the candidates for state offices regarding the special session. It was the general opinion that the legislature, if convened, should map out its own program of legislation, according to a statement issued by the Governor.

Although the impression had been given by officials that the members of the state committee had been invited to the conference between Governor Goodrich and the candidates, Frederick Schortemeier, secretary of the committee, today denied that they had been invited.

"The state committee was not called for the purpose of taking action on the special session of the Indiana general assembly," Schortemeier said, "and while this subject was discussed it was decided by those in attendance that a special session should not be called unless it was absolutely necessary and if held it should be as short as consistent with the emergency needs of the state. There was no break at any kind at any time. Any statement that various meetings were inharmonious is not a statement of truth," Schortemeier said.

Party leaders turned their attention today toward preparing for the state convention which will be held in Indianapolis May 12 and 13.

ASK SPECIAL SESSION TO PROVIDE LEGION OFFICES

Committee of Indianapolis Citizens Transmit Memorial to Governor Goodrich Today.

By United Press
Indianapolis, February 27.—A special session of the legislature to convene immediately to take up the question of an appropriation for the construction of a war memorial building to house the national headquarters of the American Legion was demanded today by a committee of Indianapolis citizens who are planning for the national headquarters of the legion in this city.

The demand came as a direct result of the announcement that a movement is underway to take the headquarters to Washington as a result of the inactivity of Indiana in making any provisions for it. The committee meetings were held at the Chamber of Commerce today. It voted to demand the session and then framed a memorial to be transmitted to Governor Goodrich immediately, setting out their demands.

action," said Timothy Shea, president of the brotherhood of locomotive firemen and engineers, and a member of the special union committee which conducted the fight against the legislation.

"The fourteen rail union executives, however, will remain in Washington for some time."

The union executives will wait to learn the views of the rank and file of two million workers affected by the bill before deciding on any further action if the president signs it.

The executives will have three courses of action open to them if the measure becomes law. They can accept it and attempt to gain through the labor board it creates the wage increases their men are demanding. Or they can abandon all attempt to get these wage increases under the bill and fight to amend it or repeal it. The third course is to attack its constitutionality in the courts.

The president's advisers in recommending that he sign the measure, it was stated, took the position that while all its provisions were not satisfactory, expediency demands that it be approved. Financial chaos will result if the roads are turned back without this law, it is feared.

Recommendations may be made by the president for additional legislation to improve the financial regulation plans approved by congress.

Director General Hines in making his recommendation to the president is understood to have made a detailed answer to the objections raised against the bill by the labor leaders.

How To Keep Young As You Grow Older

It is possible to have a hale, hearty old age. The body in youth possesses more heat than the body of middle age or old age, because the blood contains more oxygen.

It is possible for middle aged and older men and women to increase the oxygen carrying capacity of their blood—not by pumping oxygen into the lungs, but by supplying the blood with the organic iron which attracts oxygen just as the magnet attracts steel.

Two warring forces—the red blood cells and the white blood cells are always contending in the blood. They are the processes of building up, and tearing down.

During youth the hot, red blood, vitalized with oxygen, enables the building up process to overcome the tearing down process, and the tendency of the body is all toward growth and development.

As middle age approaches, the two forces tend to equalize each other, and the body retains its vigor and vitality.

But, with the coming of old age, the victory of the tearing down process is manifested by the slow, gradual decay of the vital energies.

The stress of modern life makes us old at fifty, decrepit at sixty, and useless, helpless wrecks before we pass our seventieth year.

There is absolutely no necessity for this premature senility, this surrender of strength and vitality, this abandonment of the pleasures and responsibilities of life. The bodily forces and energy can be maintained, the arterial degeneration prevented, and a hearty, healthy, old age assured.

REOLO supplies to the cells of the body the organic iron—which is easily assimilated by the blood—and attracts oxygen just as the magnet attracts steel. It enriches the blood with cell-salts and vitalizes it with life-giving oxygen—increases the circulation, and by its power of cell nutrition and reconstruction—its tonic and stimulating qualities makes the entire body glow with health.

Start the REOLO TREATMENT today and you will be delighted with the steady improvement in your strength, energy and vitality. The large package of 100 pleasant, tasteless tablets, enough for two weeks' treatment, only costs $1.

INTENSIVE DRIVE WAGED HERE TODAY

worked in advance of the intensive drive planned for today and at a meeting of the canvassers at the director's room of the First National Bank last night it was reported that approximately $1,900 had been pledged up to that time. Some of the committees had done no work in advance as they had prepared to devote their time to the task today. The early report filed last night was taken as an indication that the entire amount would be subscribed promptly today when the various committees began their work.

A meeting of the canvassing committees will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the First National Bank at which time a tabulation of the subscriptions will be made. C. D. Billings and Claude Carter are members of the committee in charge of tabulating the final returns. The chairmen of the various committees have been asked to file their reports promptly so there will be no delay in compiling the final report.

The campaign today was made for sustaining memberships which will pay agreed amounts for the purpose of employment a trained commercial secretary for the Chamber of Commerce who will give his entire time to the work of the organization. The employment of such an officer will entail additional expense as permanent office room will have to be provided in the downtown district and a stenographer or clerk will also be employed to assist the secretary. Other additional expenses will be incurred, but the officers and directors of the Chamber of Commerce believe that the amount asked in this campaign will be sufficient to take care of such expenses, including the salary of the secretary.

CHAPTER XIV.

As Dr. Durant, having already given counsel this morning to seven patients, appeared at the door of the ante-room to signal to the eight, he was palpably astonished at the presence of the young man who sat next to the door. The Doctor was very human; the Doctor was very adaptable; but for thirty years he had managed to keep the social and professional phases of his life entirely apart, and at the very first glance he was aware that Hilliard hadn't come to consult with him professionally. Nevertheless, he raised his finger in the usual sign; Hilliard followed him to the inner room.

It was Hilliard's introduction to the Doctor's morning manner; and even in his own exalted spirit, he yielded slightly to the restraint in the atmosphere. The Doctor was bland, smiling, approachable, and yet not at all the same man as he appeared at the house on James street. He seemed detached from the hampering littleness of a household; there was no air of intentional repose about him, Hilliard.

GIRLS! DRAW A MOIST CLOTH THROUGH HAIR

Let "Danderine" save your hair and double its beauty

Oh, girls, such an abundance of thick, heavy, invigorated hair; a perfect mass of wavy, silky hair, gloriously fluffy, bright and so easy to manage.

Just moisten a cloth with a little "Danderine" and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; this magically removes all dirt, excess oil and grease, but your hair is not left brittle, dry, stringy or faded, but charmingly soft, with glossy, golden gleams and tender lights. The youthful glint, tints and color are again in your hair.

"Danderine" is a tonic-beautifier. Besides doubling the beauty of the hair at once, it checks dandruff and stops falling hair. Get delightful Danderine for a few cents at any drug or toilet counter and use it as a dressing and invigorator as told on bottle.

In spite of the importance of his mission, felt apologetic; he felt as though he were unwittingly robbing science of its most valuable asset, which is time.

"I know this isn't exactly the proper thing to do," he said, "but I'm leaving town in an hour or so. . . I thought you might spare me five minutes. Doctor, even if it is a little irregular. Can you?"

"What seems to be the trouble?" The Doctor's tone was a mild invitation to squander nothing on preliminaries.

"Mr. Cullen and I are running down to New York today. . . You've seen the morning papers, haven't you?"

"Yes," The Doctor nodded. "And Cullen telephoned me last night. Was Mr. . . what was his name; Harmon? . . . was he a close friend of yours, Hilliard?"

"No; just a business associate. . . I didn't know him very well personally—socially, I should say. But it changes some of my plans. . . Mr. Cullen and I have to go to New York for a few days and after that we're going out to Montana together."

The Doctor tapped his desk thoughtfully.

"On account of this?"

"Partly, and partly not. The whole perspective's changed; we've got to get to work. Now, the last time I saw you . . . why, that was only yesterday!" He broke off, laughing at himself. "It seems so much longer than that! Why, you said then that if I ever needed any one of several different things, including seventy-five hundred dollars, to come to you. And you spoke as though you really meant it, Doctor. . . So I've come!"

The Doctor regarded him steadily for a moment, and resumed tapping the glass pad on his desk with a meditative forefinger.

"You've reconsidered, have you?"

"Not that I doubt you at all," he said, "but when Cullen telephoned me last night, he said that you and he had raised all the money you needed in half an hour after you went out to look for it. You see, I have some channels of information myself."

So I can't help wondering why you need this now." Nevertheless, he was hunting for his check-book.

"We don't need it—I simply insisted on keeping a place open for you, on the chance that you hadn't changed your mind."

"You're fully satisfied it's the right thing for me to do?"

"Yes, Doctor, I am."

The Doctor held his pen poised in the air. "I'm not sure I'm really entitled to it. Doesn't it really belong to some one who was on the spot last night?"

Hilliard's eyes twinkled.

"You're fond of talking about motives, Doctor. . . You'd have let me have that money yesterday, wouldn't you?"

"Didn't I offer it to you?"

"Yes, sir; you did. But was it because you thought you'd make a big profit or was it just to help me?"

"Why—"

"You see," said Hilliard cheerily.

"If you're going to have these mercenary motives, you've got to let me have some, too. I've let friendship interfere with business twice in two days. And you're not the only one I held a place open for—Rufus and Jack are in it, too. It was my privilege to make that condition—and I did."

The Doctor scribbled rapidly.

"Then I'll keep my promise. . . But would you mind telling me what it is I'm buying?"

"Here's your receipt, Doctor," Hilliard laid a slip of paper on the desk; took up the check, and scrutinized it carefully. "What you've bought," he said, "is a twentieth interest in a new syndicate formed last night. We'll assume the stock control in New York when we get there, by paying some more cash, and we've got more than we need already; and after that, we may possibly sell out, or we may go ahead and develop the mine ourselves. I don't know yet which; that's what Mr. Cullen and I are going West to decide. But you'll be protected anyhow; I'll see to that. And if you're in any hurry to get your money back—"

"How soon do you think it'll be?"

Hilliard laughed outright; a laugh of utter happiness. "Right now, if you say so."

Lesson 9 February 29 First Quarter

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

PETER WRITES ABOUT CHRISTIAN LIVING

I Peter 2:1-15, 11-25.

GOLDEN TEXT—He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.—I John 2:6.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Doing as Jesus did
JUNIOR TOPIC—How to Treat Those Who Wrong Us.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Nobility of Patience.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Ideals for Christian Living.

The purpose of Peter was to establish all who were passing through suffering and testing. See for example 1:7, 3:14, 4:12, 5:10-12.

I. Christian Growth (vv. 1-5).

The Christian obtains his life through the new birth, and the agent of its accomplishment is the Word of God (1:23). The same vitalizing and energizing power which makes the believer a child of God is essential to growth and development. In order to have spiritual growth there must be both renunciation and appropriation.

1. Renunciation (v. 1). Certain things injurious to spiritual life must be put away (1) malice—all wickedness, that is, the will to do injury to others without cause; (2) guile—deceit of all kinds; (3) hypocrisies—feigning to be what one is not—assuming a false appearance; (4) envies—hatred of others because they possess excellencies which we do not; (5) evil speaking—all kind of slanderous speaking against others.

2. Appropriation (vv. 2, 3). (1) Spiritual food must be taken (v. 2). The principle of the new life was conveyed through the Word (1:23), and the Word is the means by which that life is to be strengthened and developed. Just as a new born babe loves milk, so men who are born again love the Bible. (2) Spiritual food must be assimilated (v. 3). The Word of God must be received and assimilated by meditation.

3. The grand objective (vv. 4, 5). It is coming to Christ—to grow up and become a part of the glorious church, the spiritual house, which is designed to show forth the glory of God.

II. Seemly Behavior of Christians (vv. 11-25).

1. As pilgrims and sojourners (vv. 11, 12). Christians are merely sojourners on the earth; they are journeying through it on their way to the eternal home in the heavens. Our heavenly citizenship (Phil. 3:20) should constrain us to (1) abstain from fleshly lusts (v. 11). The term "lusts" includes the entire army of unclean forces springing from our carnal natures; they are enumerated in Galatians 5:19-21. These war against the soul. (2) Behavior honest before the heathen (v. 12). Christians should so live that it will be impossible for the world to speak against them as evildoers.

2. As citizens (vv. 13-17). While the Christian's true citizenship is in heaven, he has a responsibility as a citizen on the earth. A Christian man recognizes the necessity of social order, and will not only graciously submit to the authority of rulers regardless of the form of government, but will faithfully perform his obligations as a citizen. This he will not do through cringing fear, but as the Lord's free man. By this free submission as a servant of God he puts to silence the ignorance of foolish men (vv. 15, 16). (1) Honor all men (v. 17). He will see in every man the image of God and therefore give honor to him. (2) Love the brotherhood (v. 17). The Christian has a peculiar love for those who are of the same household. (3) Fear God (v. 17). (4) Honor the king (v. 17). This has peculiar significance, for in all probability the wicked Nero was the king then reigning.

3. As servants (vv. 18-25). While doubtless slaves were meant here, the principle applies to all who have relation to employers. The Christian will be in subjection to his master. He will not only do this when his employer is gentle and reasonable, but even when it means wrongful suffering. It means not only submission, but loyalty. It is the duty of a Christian to consider and further the interests of his employer. Many times to do so means hardship and suffering. The grand example of suffering wrongfully is Jesus Christ. While his suffering is an example to us, it was much more, because he suffered in order to break forever the power of sin so as to do away forever with oppression.

"Avoid crowds if you want to avoid influenza," says Association for Improving the Conditions of New York.

Keep your hands clean, drink plenty of fresh water; sleep with windows open; eat three uniform meals a day including a good breakfast.

People who have catarrh or frequent colds invite influenza, declares a prominent Kentucky druggist.

The membrane of the throat and nose is raw, sore and tender, and makes a lovely abiding place for germs to thrive and multiply.

He advises an inexpensive home-made remedy that will bring relief in less than a day and will stop all discharge and soothe and heal the inflamed membrane in a few days.

Thousands are making this beneficial remedy at home and anyone who has catarrh or a cold can do the same.

Pour three-quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arceine into a pint bottle, then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled.

Gargle the throat as directed and snuff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It's a simple way to get rid of cold and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat clean and healthy.

Nearly all druggists dispense Mentholized Arceine in vials containing exactly three-quarters of an ounce, which is all you need to make a pint of this healthful medicine.

board desires to add thousands of dollars to the duplicates this year in this way.

In former years household goods have been listed in a lump sum, but the new schedule requires an itemized assessment of household goods. Nearly every article found in a home is listed in the assessment sheet and the questions "crossfire" so many times that it will be with difficulty that any property owner is able to conceal any of his household goods from the assessors.

With the exception of the itemized lists of household goods and farm property, the schedule adopted for this year is practically the same as the old form. All notes, mortgages, certificates of indebtedness and other papers and documents of value must be given in the same as in former years.

The members of the state tax board who spoke to the assessors laid particular stress upon the necessity of following out the schedule closely. A review of the blanks will be made after they are filed and corrections will be made if the state board believes that an attempt has been made to conceal property from taxation. It is the belief of the township assessors that the new schedule will place thousands of dollars worth of household goods on the tax duplicates in each township which heretofore have not been turned in for taxation. The state board takes the view that with personal property assessed at full value the tax rate may again be reduced and the property owner will not pay very much more in taxes in 1921 than he did in 1920. The board explains that the increased appraised value of property will mean a lower tax rate.

The deputy assessors are of the opinion that more time will be required to list personal property this year because of the exactness of the new form. Explanations will have to be made to many property owners who are not familiar with the new schedule and the work of filling out the additional blanks will also take more time. The total value of the household goods separately listed must correspond to the penny with the lump sum that is placed on such property by the owner.

HAPPY, cheerful homes are the greatest blessings in the world. And almost always it is the WOMAN who makes the home happy.

The survey shows that forty per cent. of the county population is rural. One person in every six attends church, the survey showed, and about eight per cent. live outside the boundaries of any church parish.

Another subject to be taken under consideration is the salary of ministers. The survey showed that the highest salaried minister in the county receives $1,500 a year, with a parsonage.

Mrs. Ida Ensinger of Jonesville, Miss Evelyn Childs has gone to Indianapolis to accept a position.

Sufferers Should Realize That It Is a Blood Infection.

Doubtless like other sufferers, you have often asked yourself this question, which continues to remain unanswered.

Science has proven that Rheumatism is caused by a germ in your blood, and the only way to reach it is by a remedy which eliminates and removes these little pain demons.

S. S. S. has been successfully used for Rheumatism for more than fifty years and many voluntary testimonials are on file from those whom it has benefited. Try it to-day, and you will find yourself at last on the right track to get rid of your Rheumatism. RESULTS FAIL TO SHOW FOR WHOLE YEAR

Lady Finally Finds Remarkable Relief Thru Trutona in Short Time.

Muncie, Ind., Feb. 26—"I have tried other medicines without results but in spite of this Trutona is giving me the relief that I have wanted all the time." This statement was made a few days ago by Mrs. George Wagner, wife of an employee of the Kelly Furniture Co. of Muncie. She is well known here and lives at 407 West Eighth street.

"For the past year I have suffered with my stomach," she says. Shortly after meals I would experience a gnawing pain there and very often gas would form. Then I would feel bloated. I had a pressing around my heart and would be very short of breath at times. I suffered from a severe pain in my right side. Nervousness prevented me from sleeping well, and I usually felt as tired when I got up as when I went to bed the night before.

"I've taken one bottle of Trutona and now I am confident that it is the best medicine for ailments such as mine. I'm not bothered with the gas formations or the bloated feeling as I was before and I'm not nearly as short of breath. The pain in my right side has been relieved while I sleep well and don't feel tired in the morning as I used to. I'm going to continue using Trutona for I am sure that it will entirely relieve me of my troubles in a short time."

Trutona is now being introduced and explained in Seymour at Federman's Drug Store.

Recalls School Days.

The following letter has been received by The Republican from William E. Trueblood, of Marysville, Mo., which will be interesting to many of his acquaintances in this county:

I received a letter from Crothersville, my old home town, near where I spent my boyhood days. To be exact the old log school house in which I spent so many happy hours in search of an education was situated in Grassy Fork township, the township in which I was born. The old log school house now appears only in memory as it has been removed. It was known as the Thompson school house, as nearly as I can remember. The ground was donated by Robert Thompson to the district for school purposes. It was located in the southwest corner of his farm and on a public highway running east and west. To the best of my recollection, the log house was about twenty feet square and the ceiling was seven feet high. Slab benches were built. Any scholar who attended that school in 1856-7 and 8 will remember the location of that old blackboard which stood up against the wall in the northwest corner on the north side of the room. I recall how I used to scratch my head in order to solve some of those mathematical problems in Ray's arithmetic.

Of the fifty pupils who attended that school in 1858 there are but a few left in Jackson county. I recall a few names: Nan Perry Lett and David W. Sage, of Crothersville, Mrs. Amanda Thompson Blair of Seymour, Mrs. Mollie Daniels Rucker, of Grassy Fork township, and Mrs. Philena A. Thompson Russell of Billings, Mont., who is now in Jackson county visiting her brother, Boone Hamilton, and other relatives and friends.

Now as I have spoken of my school mates I wish to say a few words about my old comrades of Co. B. Twenty-second Indiana Volunteers. To the best of my knowledge there are very few of them left. I recall the names of David W. Sage, of Crothersville, Joseph Trowbridge of Stanberry, Mo., S. H. Trueblood, of Fort Dodge, Kas., and myself. I refer only to those who volunteered from Grassy Fork township.

It will be remembered that the census of 1860 gave the population of the United States at about thirty million people. I cannot pass by without mentioning some of the great heroes and patriots of that great Civil War. Abraham Lincoln guided the ship of state and as the veil of time is drawn back the shades of Grant, Sheridan and Thomas step forth. The flag of '61 had but thirty-four stars compared to the flag of today with forty-eight stars. The least I can say is that I am duly proud of my country and the progress it has made.

Mr. Trueblood stated that the high cost of living problem is freely discussed in this community, as it is everywhere, but he is confident that the conditions in the United States will soon return to normal. "Confidence will unravel the great problem," he writes. He expresses opposition to the policy of sending American soldiers abroad to settle European differences.

F. H. Green has returned from Key West, Fla., where he spent the winter months.

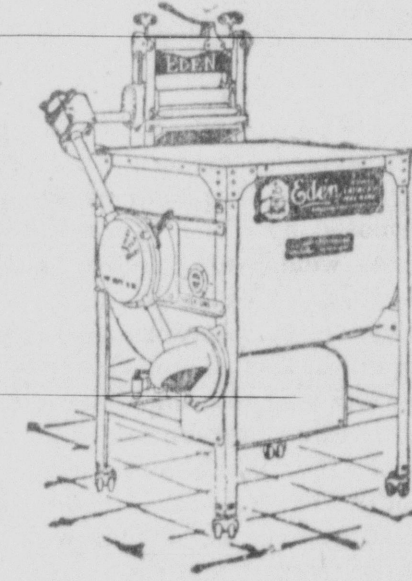

Mrs. Julia Thompson is spending a few days in Cincinnati with her daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth McElhany.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Barnes, of Edinburg, were the guests of S. A. Barnes Thursday.

Miss Lula Wentz to Indianapolis, came this afternoon to visit her cousin, Miss Laura Kasting.

Misses Roth and Lorena Spurgeon of Brownstown, were shopping visitors here today.

REPLY TO THE PRESIDENT'S ADRIATIC NOTE ARRIVES

Many Think Allies Will Agree to Have Jugo-Slavia and Italy Enter Negotiations.

By United Press

Washington, February 27.—The reply of the allies to President Wilson's last note on the Adriatic settlement was received at the state department today. Many officials here believed the allies would agree to Wilson's plan to have Jugo-Slavia and Italy enter negotiations with the object of fixing their frontier in the Fiume region on the line acceptable to both nations, and failing in this, that they would agree to accept a decision of Britain, France and the United States as to their common frontiers. This proposal was made in Wilson's last note, dispatched last Tuesday.

Insist on "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" in a "Bayer package," containing proper directions for Headache, Colds, Pain, Neuralgia, Lumbago, and Rheumatism. Name "Bayer" means genuine Aspirin prescribed by physicians for nineteen years. Handy tin boxes of 12 tablets cost few cents. Aspirin is trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monoacetic-acidester of Salicylicacid.

In this communication the president also reiterated that he stood firm against the plan of settlement proposed by the supreme council which would run counted to the aspirations of Jugo-Slavia and called attention to his warning of February 10th that if the allies persisted in trying to maintain "the old order of dividing territories without regard for inhabitants thereof he would have to take under serious consideration the withdrawal of the peace treaty from the senate."

WOULD LIFT THE EMBARGO

Calls Upon President "to Explain Invasion" of Country—Reparation is Suggested.

By United Press

Washington, February 27.—A joint resolution providing for recognition of soviet Russia was offered in the senate today by Senator France, Maryland, Republican. It was referred to the senate foreign relations committee.

The resolution would provide for the establishment of friendly relations with soviet Russia, lifting of the embargo, extension of trade with Russia, arrangement of credit, withdrawal of any American troops remaining on Russian soil and for "any needed explanation and reparation which may be due from this country for our invasion of Russian territory."

The resolution further directs the President "to convey to the people of Russia expressions of our appreciation and gratitude for their heroic part in the war and assurances of the desire of the American people to co-operate with them and assist them in every possible way to establish institutions which will insure liberty."
